I am a full stack developer with experience creating end-to-end web applications, from planning and design to implementation and maintenance. I am passionate about creating technological solutions to solve complex problems and improve the user experience. As a full stack developer, I have worked with a variety of technologies, including programming languages like JavaScript, C#, ajax, .NET and popular frameworks such as EntityFramework and Boostrap. Additionally, I have experience with both relational and non-relational databases, as well as implementing APIs and web services.
